

Employee Health and Safety

Policy

The Occupational Health and Safety Committee of Chinook Arch staff will operate the health and safety program and ensure compliance with the Occupational Health and Safety Act and Regulations. All staff are required to participate in the program.

All staff are responsible for:

- working safely
- following approved safety procedures
- reporting hazards and incidents
- making health and safety a part of their daily routine

Supervisors are responsible for ensuring that staff are trained in approved work procedures that minimize risk of injury. Supervisors should ensure that employees follow safe work methods.

Background

Employers are required to comply with the Alberta Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) legislation and implement the health and safety code.
